

Module 8 Reflection

Assignment Overview

It's always good practice to reflect on what you've learned. Students should think back on the past term while completing this assignment.

Assignment Instructions

The reflection should contain at least the following:

- At least three lessons/subjects they learned during the course;
- Why these were valuable, notable to them;
- A discussion of how these items will impact their life outside of class (work, personal, family, hobbies, etc.).

This assignment should be between one and one and a half pages, double-spaced.

Due: Friday of Module 8 at 11:59 pm
